Elliott arrived yesterday from Terre Haute, Ind., to accept the Superintendency of the Collins & Rudy Lumber Company's plant, in place of Mr. Lobnitz, who resigned to accept a position in Cincinnati. Mr. Elliott expresses himself as pleased with our city and its people, and it is hoped he will remain as one of us.

IMMENSE FIRE LOSS.

Big Chair Factory of Heehinger Bros. Burned at Baltimore.

Colonel David Heehinger is in receipt of unwelcome news from Baltimore.

The immense chair factory of Heehinger Bros. was totally destroyed by fire in that city on Wednesday, involving a loss of $50,000, with an insurance of only $22,500.

The firm is composed of Messrs. Joseph and David Heehinger, sons of the late Ferdinand Heehinger, formerly of this city.

The loss falls especially heavy just at this time, when the factory was full of orders on account of the spring trade.

MR. DAVID WILLSON.

Venerable Fleming County Citizen Passed Away Yesterday.

David Willson, aged 81 years, died yesterday shortly after 1 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Watson Andrews, in Flemingburg.

He leaves besides Mrs. Andrews another daughter, Mrs. Louie January of this city, seven grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

He was born in Bath county and lived there until 1867 when he located in Flemingburg, going into the banking business. Since quitting same he has lived in retirement.

The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock from the home, with services by Rev. W. W. Spates of the M. E. Church, South, the denomination to which Mr. Willson belonged.

Interment in the Fleming County Cemetery.

The pallbearers will be Messrs. Thomas S. Andrews, John Darnall, Steele Dudley, T. L. Given, M. M. Eager, James McCreary.

Messrs. Willson and Andrew and Miss Mary Houston January will leave in the morning to attend the funeral.

REDMEN'S BANQUET.

A Right Royal Time Among the Indians and the Haymakers.

There was, up to late last night and somewhat early this morning, a big time among the Hunters and Warriors and Chiefs of Wyandotte Tribe and the grass-tossers of Haymakers 34.

The provocation was the induction into the mysteries of the Order of eight palefaces, Messrs. W. M. Archdeacon, W. C. Watkins, Frank Ryder, Charles F. Pitt, J. L. Daulton, James Outten, Ernie Ott and Wheeler Bass, on whom were conferred the Adoption Degree, the Teams of Idaho Tribe of Bradyville and of Wyandotte exemplifying the work in fine style.

Following the ceremonies came a banquet at the St. Charles, where seventy-five plates were laid, with a menu that did honor to Landlord Willocks.

Past Great Sachem of Kentucky Thomas A. Davis presided as Toastmaster, and extended a hearty welcome to the visiting Brothers.

Responses were made by Brothers George W. Bittingham, Martin Ellis and W. T. Warner, all of the Bradyville Tribe; and there was such a good time generally that it was after 1 o'clock this morning when the actors left the stage.

Miss Florence Wadsworth is ill with congestion of the lungs at her home on West Third street.

The Bracken Chronicle has been greatly improved in general appearance, owing to Editor Thompson's good taste in the selection of a new dress of type.

RIVER NEWS.

The Courier will pass up for Pomeroy tonight.

The Bonanza will be down tonight from Pomeroy.

The Urania is due down from Huntington this evening.

The Ohio is falling from Pittsburgh to a point below Louisville.

The Queen City will be down tonight from Pittsburgh with a big trip.

The Iron Age with forty barges has arrived at Memphis. She will return to Louisville at once to take another big tow South some time next week.

The J. B. Finley, Joe Williams, Alice Brown, Harry Brown, Raymond Horner, Defender, Boaz, Coal City and John A. Wood are on their way up with tows of empties.

About 1,200,000 bushels of coal has left Pittsburgh on this rise, and the towboats taking it out were the Josh Cook, Sam Brown, Jim Wood, Fred Wilson, Ed Roberts, Tom Rees, Ironsides and Volunteer.

The Memphis towboats are bringing into that port hundreds of thousands of feet of perminon logs from Island 35. The logs are used at Memphis in making golf sticks and other novelties, which are exported to England.

The tonnage capacity of the steamer Greyhound, now receiving her boilers, is 125 tons. Her dimensions are 156 feet long, 27.5 feet wide and 12 feet depth in hull. Her owners, William and George Bay, expect to turn her wheel in about two weeks. She is under construction at Ironton.

The report of commerce which passed through Lock No. 11 of the Kanawha, for March shows a considerable increase in the shipment of coal. It amounted to 5,800,000 bushels. Among other items were sawlogs and lumber, 2,150,000 feet board measure; railroad ties, 29,000; staves, 69,000; hoop poles, 112,930. Of steamers, 250 passed through carrying 1,500 passengers and 2,200 tons of merchandise.

Bids received for the work of constructing Dam No. 2, on the Ohio river nine miles below Pittsburgh, were: Evansville Contract Company, Evansville, Ind., $119,000; Edward Heily, Louisville, Ky., $131,000; Sheridan-Kirk Contracting Company, Nicholasville, Ky., $138,000; and C. J. McDonald of Pittsburgh, who put in his bid for $152,000. Major Rixby said it would be awarded to the Evansville Contracting Company. Work will be commenced on the building of the dam as soon as the water recedes.

A GENTLE HINT.

In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature, rain, wind and sunshine often intermingled in a single day, it is no wonder that our children, friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected colds. Half the deaths resulting directly from this cause. A bottle of Heehinger's German Syrup keeps about your home for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor's bill, and perhaps death by the use of three or four doctors. For curing Consumption, Hemorrhages, Pneumonias, severe coughs, Croup, or any disease of the Throat or Lungs, its success is almost wonderful, as your druggist will tell you. Get a sample bottle free from J. B. Wood & Son, Maysville, Ky. Regular size, 75 cts. Get Green's Prime Almanac.

There were 23,000 words in William M. Evans's will. Mr. Evans was himself a great lawyer, and so was Samuel J. Tilden. Sometimes even a lawyer uses too many words and too much lingo to make his meaning plain; and it's a poor jockey who can't find the bars down somewhere in 23,000 words. In Tilden's case several panels of fence were missing in half the number of words.

With charming naïveté AGUINALDO completely punctured anti-imperialism in his statement to Chief Justice ARELLANO, who had just completed explaining to him the Anti-Imperialist policy of the United States in the Philippines. "I never believed," said AGUINALDO, "that the Americans would be so fair and liberal. Enough; I am satisfied with America."

The whole anti-imperialist campaign has been built on ignorance and misrepresentation, says The Times-Star. Its chief advocate in the United States confessed when he launched it that he wanted an issue with which to deceive what he termed "the ignorant foreign born voters" in the hopes of reaching the Presidency. He knew the falsity of his pretensions and statements as well as any man. In his purpose he was aided by a set of dreamers, who fancied evils that might exist.

But with AGUINALDO it was different. His ambitions forced him into an antagonism of the United States. To what extent he was played upon by the representatives of foreign powers eager to have American authority withdrawn from the Philippines in order that they might seize their time will reveal. After the break with the United States he was in no position to learn with any degree of certainty the intents and purposes of this country. What information came to him was such as was tinctured by the expressions of BRYAN and the Boston courier. He had no chance to know any better than that what was declared by one for political effect and by the other because of a peculiar state of mind were true—that he and the Filipinos were to be hatched to the chariot of Empire and handed in triumph. It was not until his capture that he had an opportunity to learn the truth, and then he made the involuntary confession which fixes forever the blot of shame upon the Democracy and their Boston allies.

As we have suggested before, it is time for some of these so-called Americans to take the oath of allegiance to the United States and to stop maligning their country, aspersing its statesmen and slandering its soldiers.

Mr. James Molloy is critically ill at his home at Germantown.

The crop report for March shows the condition of wheat throughout the country to be better than at any time since 1901. The farmers in many of the states, however, fear that the heavy dry will do much damage before May 1st, as it has already made its appearance.

Walter K. Knight of Shiloh, Mo., has written the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company that in 1906 he rode in a C. and O. freight train from Newport News to Richmond without paying.

He asks the company to advise him what the fare is between the points named, and says he will settle as soon as possible, which he hopes will be before next June.

Doan's Kidney Pills which I got at J. Jas. Woods' drug store, Second and Second and Market streets, proved of such great benefit to Mr. Wallingford that he did not consider it necessary to take more than one box to cure him of backache which had annoyed him for some length of time. His father also used Doan's Ointment and is enthusiastic in its praise. For sale by all dealers; price 50 cents a box. FOSTER-MILBURN CO., Buffalo, N. Y., Sole Agents for the United States. NO RELATIVES.

Two Prominent Kentucky Families Say They Are Not Related to a Woman Arrested for Bigamy.

Louisville, Ky., April 12.—Mrs. Alice Gladys Breckinridge Castleman Burns, who claimed to be a daughter of Gen. John B. Castleman, of Louisville, and who has just been indicted for bigamy by a Jersey City, N. J., jury, is in no way connected with the Castleman or Breckinridge families. Gen. Castleman is out of the city at present, but members of his family declare that they did not know anything about the woman who adopted the name of the general's oldest daughter. When the case of the woman first came up some weeks ago Mr. Castleman received inquiries from all over the country about her, but could answer only that he did not know anything about the prisoner. It is alleged Mrs. Burns simply made use of a slight resemblance to Miss Castleman to temporarily assume her name and gain a footing in society.

WINCHESTER-HILL WEDDING.

Mayor Tom L. Johnson and Family of Cleveland, O., Will Attend.

Louisville, Ky., April 12.—Karl J. Telford, city building inspector, received a letter Thursday from Mayor Tom L. Johnson, of Cleveland, in which Mr. Johnson said that he was coming to Louisville to remain a week or ten days. He and his wife and family will attend the wedding of Miss Mary Tyler Hill and Frederick Churchill Winchester, which will take place April 20, at Mr. Telford's residence. Mr. Johnson is a cousin of Cleveland's new mayor. His letter Mr. Johnson says that he has been deep in politics and hopes to secure some rest during his stay in Louisville. It is probable that local democratic leaders will give a dinner in honor of Mr. Johnson while he is in Louisville.
